ARDMORE, OKLAHOMA, TUESDAY EVENING OCTOBER 7 1913

NUMBER 1

OIL AT HEWITT IN NEW WELL

PRODUCING SAND IS 100 FEET
NEARER THE SURFACE THAN THE DRILLER EXPECTED.

A local company, composed of Mr. Elzey, F. J. Ramsey and others, who have been drilling near Hewitt in Section 26-3-2, have reached the sand. The drill was at a depth of 740 feet when the sand was touched. The driller was expecting the sand one hundred feet further down and the water was not cased off. The sand gave a showing of oil and the drill was immediately withdrawn. What the production will be is not known, but the members of the company are of the opinion that a fair good well has been found at this depth. The fact that the sand is one hundred feet nearer the surface than in the Oil City field is encouraging to the drillers, and the country around Hewitt will no doubt be thoroughly tested. The water will be cased off at once, the drill will penetrate the first sand to a greater depth, and until that is done no one knows whether it will develop into a paying well or not. The driller is also of the opinion that the second sand, which he expects to find at a depth of another hundred feet, will be a better producing sand than the first encountered.

COUNTIES MUST BEAR EXPENSE.

Governor Says Accommodations for Incorrigible Girls Are Limited.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 6.—While the legislature last winter made an appropriation of $5,000 a year for the care of incorrigible girls, the number that can be accommodated at state expense must be very limited, as suggested in a letter sent out by Governor Crouce to county judges in the state.

County judges must determine if girls, brought to the attention of the court, are to be cared for under the provisions of the law, and the governor explains clearly that the counties from which these girls are sent must bear the expense of commitment. What number the appropriation will care for is problematical, but it will be limited, to say the least, and there will be many more subject to commitment, perhaps, than can be cared for.

Do not fail to see Mr. H. L. Carl at Whittington Hotel, Ardmore, Saturday, Oct. 11, relative to civil service appointments.

Rooster Attacks Woman.

Webb City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Mrs. May McCann is critically ill in her home north of Webb City of injuries received when she was attacked by a pet rooster. Blood poisoning developed in the wound inflicted by the fowl and there is little hope of the woman's recovery.

Mrs. McCann has trained the brown leghorn rooster to follow her about the yard and had teased him several times to make him angry. She waved a rag before his eyes. The rooster immediately became angry and when she shook her apron at him he flew to her shoulder and spurred her on the neck and left cheek.

The flesh was torn before she could grasp her pet's neck. Her parents, who live in Muskogee, Okla., have been summoned.

MEXICAN FEDERALS VERY INHUMAN

REBELS DRAGGED FROM HOSPITAL AT DURANGO AND SHOT BY FEDERAL TROOPS.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 7.—Mining men who arrived from Durango last night, today asserted that the federals are acting there with more inhumanity than the rebels. They said that acting on instructions, the federals killed all the wounded rebels and said that one man was dragged from a hospital, immediately after his leg was amputated, and shot.

HOUSTON MAN HERE.

President of Margay Oil Company Interested in Ardmore.

T. F. Birmingham of Houston, Tex., president of the Margay Oil Company, is here looking over the Carter county oil fields and visiting with E. H. Short, vice president of his company, who has been here for a month or more. The Margay Oil Company is said to have taken its name from a South American wildcat which might lead some to believe the company to be of the wildcat variety. Whether it is or not, this company has some fine producing wells in Texas and also in Oklahoma and will probably be the owners of some wells in the Carter county fields. If there were no wildcatting done there would be no proven oil fields, and the wildcat companies have made possible all the oil development that has ever been made.

ATT'Y GENERAL VISITS ARDMORE

APPEARED IN FEDERAL COURT
AS COUNSEL FOR STATE BANK-ING BOARD. IS A CANDIDATE.

Attorney General West was an Ardmore visitor yesterday. He appeared in the federal court, as counsel for the State Banking Board in the case of the American Water Softener Co. vs. J. D. Lankford et al. Mr. Lankford is president of the state banking board. The suit grew out of the failure of a bank in the northeastern portion of the state. Following the hearing of arguments in the case, both sides were allowed to submit the matter upon briefs and were given time to get their briefs in the hands of the court.

General West returned to his office in Oklahoma City last night. In speaking of his gubernatorial race he said that he would be in the race for governor, that an active campaign would not start before about May, and that he would not resign from his present position as Attorney General. He said if he were a rich man he might afford to do so, but under the circumstances he would continue to hold his office while he made the campaign for a promotion in politics.

PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS WIN OPENING GAME IN NEW YORK

OPPORTUNE HITTING BY AMERICAN LEAGUERS ANNEX OPENER
—TEAMS DIVIDED HITS EQUALLY, AND PHILADELPHIA MADE ONLY ERROR—COLLINS AND BAKER STARRER AT THE BAT WITH THREE HITS EACH—BAKER GETTING A HOME RUN WITH ONE ON—THREE PITCHERS USED BY MCGRAW.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Philadelphia Athletics copped the opening game of the world's series from New York today, 6 to 4. The batting of Collins and Baker featuring for the American League team.

Both teams hit the ball but Philadelphia's hits came when they counted for runs. When the gates of the Polo grounds opened this morning, five thousand fans were in line to purchase tickets. The line began forming at four o'clock yesterday and today was constantly swelling. During the forenoon the skies were cloudy and rain threatened to prevent today's game.

At noon, forty thousand people were in the stands and a record-breaking attendance was indicated. Bender, the star twirler for the Athletics was the first man in uniform to appear and was greeted with cheers.

Bender and Shang were announced as the battery for the Athletics, and Marquard and Meyers for the Giants. The line-up was announced as follows:

PHILADELPHIA—Murphy, rf; Oldring, lf; Collins, 2b; Baker, 3b; McInnes, 1b; Strunk, cf; Barry, ss; Schrang, p; Bender, c.

NEW YORK—Shaffer, cf; Doyle, 2b; Fletcher, ss; Burns, lf; Herzog, 3b; Murray, rf; Meyers, c; Merkle, 1b; Marquard, p.

FIRST INNING—Murphy filed out; Oldring singled, Collins singled sharply to center. The crowd gave "Home Run" Baker a big cheer when he came to bat. Baker fled out to Burns, and Oldring was caught off first. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Bender had good speed, which was difficult to follow in the dark day. Shaffer fled out to Murphy. Doyle went out on a high fly to Strunk. Fletcher singled. Fletcher was caught at least ten feet off the base, Shang to Collins. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SECOND INNING—McInnes out; Herzog to Merkle. Strunk fanned, being unable to solve Marquard's puzzling shoots. Barry out, Fletcher to Merkle.

New York—Burns fanned. Herzog out on a grounder to McInnes. Murray singled to left and would have taken second but for Oldring's quick fielding and throw, which drove him back to first. With Meyers at bat, it was Indian against Indian. Meyers fled out to Oldring. No runs, one hit, one error.

THIRD INNING—Schrang was out on a high one to Burns. Bender was given a hand when he came to the plate. Bender went out, Fletcher to Merkle. Murphy got a Texas Leaguer to center. Murphy was forced at second when Fletcher took Oldring's grounder and touched second. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Merkle got an infield hit which Barry could not field in time to catch the runner. Marquard sacrificed, Collins to McInnes. Shaffer went out on an infield fly to Strunk. Merkle scored on Doyle's single to right. The crowd was in a frenzy. Fletcher fled out to Murphy. One run, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING—Collins sent a long drive to centerfield for three bags. (With Baker at the bat the Philadelphia cheered to the echo. Baker fouled off the first ball. Collins scored on Baker's infield hit, which Doyle was barely able to knock down with his gloved hand. McInnes sacrificed. Marquard to Merkle. Baker was out at third, when Marquard speared Strunk's grounder and threw to Herzog. Barry doubled down the left field line sending Strunk to third. Strunk and Barry both scored on Shang's three-bagger. It looked to many as if Shaffer misjudged the ball. He leaped into the air while running backwards, but the ball went through his fingers clear to the centerfield fence. Marquard threw out Bender. Three runs, four hits, no errors.

New York—Burns doubled along the left field line. Herzog sent a ball to ward third, which was a foul by only a few inches. Burns was caught out on the line when Bender took Herzog's grounder and tossed to Baker, who threw to Collins, who returned the ball to Baker for the put-out. Herzog went to second on the play. Murray went out on three straight strikes. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING—Murphy went out on a bunt, Marquard to Merkle. Marquard took Oldring's grounder and threw the batter out at first. Marquard became unsteady and Collins walked. Collins stole second, the runner having taken a good lead off Marquard. Collins and Baker both scored on Baker's home run drive into the right field bleachers. It was a longer hit than his famous home run drive of two years ago on the Polo Grounds, when he tied the score. Pandemonium broke loose. Hats were thrown into the air and the Athletics threw their hats into the air and cheered. McInnes fled out to Fletcher. Two runs, one hit, no errors.

SIXTH INNING—Crandall is now pitching for New York. Strunk fled out to Shaffer. Barry fled out to Shaffer. It was very dark and difficult for the batters to follow the ball. Schang fled out to Burns. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Murray went out, Collins to McInnes. Meyers went out, Bender to McInnes. Merkle struck at what was apparently the third strike and Schang dropped the ball. The Giants claimed that Schang interfered with Merkle. Merkle ran to first and a long argument followed, the batter finally being declared out on strikes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING—Bender fanned. Murphy out, Doyle to Merkle. Oldring out on a hard liner to Shaffer. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Crandall out, Barry to McInnes. Shaffer got his first hit, a single. Doyle singled to right, Shaffer taking third. It was a hit and run play beautifully worked. A double play, however, killed the Giants' chance of scoring. Barry took Fletcher at second. Herzog fled out. Three runs, three hits, one error.

New York—Merkle singled. McCormick batted for Marquard. McCormick singled. Shaffer went out, Collins to McInnes. Merkle going to third and McCormick to second. Merkle scored when Barry took Doyle's grounder and threw wild to first. McCormick scored on Fletcher's single. Doyle scored when Baker took Burns' grounder and threw out Fletcher's grounder and tossed it to Collins, forcing out Doyle, and Collins threw out Fletcher at first. No runs, two hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING—Collins beat out a bunt, his third hit. Baker singled to left, Collins going to third. Collins scored on McInnes' double to left, Baker being held at third. Tsearou then went into the box. Strunk fanned. Baker was caught at the plate on an attempted delayed steal. Barry went out on a pop fly to Doyle. One run, three hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING—Schrang out, Herzog to Merkle. Bender out, pitcher to first. Murphy walked. Murphy out stealing, Meyers to Doyle. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Merkle out, Barry to McInnes. McInnes batting for Tsearou fled out to Barry. Shaffer fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

The score:
Philadelphia . . . 000 320 010—6 11 1
New York . . . 001 030 000—4 11 0

RETAIN EVIDENCE GIVEN BY RYAN

EFFORTS OF SULZER'S COUNSEL
PROVE OF NO AVAIL WITH IM-PEACHMENT COURT.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The Sulzer impeachment court in executive session today voted to reconsider and retain in the record, the testimony yesterday of Allan Ryan, in which he said that Sulzer had asked him to see Senator Root and endeavor to have Root intercede with William Barnes to prevail upon the republican senators of the impeachment court to hold the proceedings illegal. Ryan testified today that Sulzer requested him to ask Delany Nichol to seek Charles F. Murphy in an effort to have the proceedings stopped.

The defense opened by calling Samuel Beardsley, by whom Attorney Herick said he would prove that Sulzer refused one campaign contribution of twenty-five thousand dollars. The court voted against the admission of this testimony. Herman Lehman, treasurer of Sulzer's campaign fund, testified that he gave Sulzer five thousand dollars without reservation. The governor's attorneys said they proposed to show that this part of the money he used on Wall Street.

Railroad Attorney Dead.
Windsor, Ontario, Oct. 7.—Maxwell Everts, general counsel for the Southern Pacific railroad, died here today.

OIL CITY FIELD HAS NEW WELL

FIFTY-BARREL PRODUCER AD-
JOINS OIL CITY ON THE EAST —DEVELOPMENT CONTINUES.

The Santa Fe company in section 27-3-2, located just east of Oil City, has brought in one of the best wells in the Oil City field. This well is a fifty-barrel producer, from the best information the Ardmoreite can obtain. The oil is of the heavy variety, which is common to the Oil City field, and is said to be a very fine lubricating oil. The Santa Fe has six rigs in the territory adjoining Oil City while several smaller concerns are actively drilling in that field. It is noticeable that very few rigs are leaving the Oil City field for the Joiner City field, which shows conclusively that the operators in the Oil City field are getting pay stuff and are content to remain in the old field. From the Loco fields several rigs are coming to the Joiner City field. This is done for the reason that more gas is being found at Loco than oil, and all the gas that can be marketed for the present is uncovered. The oil portion of the field seems to be located east of the Loco fields. The field surrounding Oil City has produced no big flowing wells but it is said to be the safest field in the state. The wells are expected to be producing for many years to come and with the rigs now in the field the producing wells are being augmented steadily and for twenty years to come that field will be giving up its wealth, and hundreds of men will be employed there.

Raising Good Cotton.

B. A. Holliday, one of Carter county's most progressive and industrious farmers, says he has some cotton that will make three-fourths of a bale to the acre. The land was not fertilized nor irrigated nor dynamited. It was worked late and safe pheasants which Mr. Holliday has were allowed to run in the cotton and he believes they were a great factor in destroying insects that ruin much of the cotton. With the prevailing prices such cotton will pay for its cultivation and will buy the ordinary land of the county in one year. Can any other country say so much for itself?

County Court.

In the county court this morning the case of the Hargadine, McKittick Dry Goods Co. vs. W. F. Warren, J. S. Mullan, J. R. Dexter, H. G. Stong, Henry Behne, G. M. Cunningham and W. A. Gilliam was dismissed for want of prosecution.

Following are the new talesmen summoned for service in the court: L. R. Best, S. A. McMillan, G. C. Wicker, G. W. A. Roberts, Ed Leach, M. V. Riley, C. G. Green, W. G. Hatfield, J. F. Gwinn, H. D. Bradberry, Wm. Genn, J. L. Troop, W. H. Mason, Clyde Fraser and E. L. Thompson.

Wheat Doing Fine.

E. F. Riser was in the city today from Woodford. He has sowed 199 acres of wheat and a portion of it is up to a good stand and is growing so fast that it will be ready for pasturing next week if the ground is not too soft to be trampled by the stock.
